DISCUSSION

- AUTTC Dashboard:

POTTER stated he is looking to have more historical data available on the website.

- Bylaws- voice and vote for ex-officio members:

CALDWELL discussed his position as Ombudsperson in other committees as a non-voting member and responsibilities of an ex-officio.

COMMITTEE discussed responsibility of individuals given a vote at the meetings that they need to maintain a presence at the meetings because if given a vote they are counted towards quorum.

CALDWELL stated that his personal choice was to remain as a NON-VOTING ADVISOR as listed in the AUTTC bylaws.

ODONNELL moved to maintain the ombudsperson as a non-voting advisor in the bylaws.

HAENER 2nd that motion.

ALL in favor.

NO abstentions.

NO oppositions.

- Implementation of 2015-2016 moped guidelines:

ODONNELL stated that 30% of tickets issued on 11/16/16 were improper use of mopeds on sidewalks.

ODONNELL stated that she did not know if this was going to be a regular occurrence of a day devoted to improper moped use, but that the department is aware of the problem and taking action against violators.

NICHOLLS stated that she thinks it would be more effective as an ongoing occurrence to help students become aware that it is not legal.

ODONNELL stated there is potential for adding additional signage on the paths reminding people that it is not legal to drive mopeds on sidewalks.

CORRESPONDENCE AND PUBLIC COMMENT

ODONNELL discussed the pedestrian signs around campus and their use and positions around campus.
